Section C: Comprehension (7 marks)

Read the following passage below carefully and answer the following questions.

Once there was a young Indian boy who had no family except for an old elephant. One starry evening, the old elephant died. The boy sat under a tree and cried.

The boy cried for a very long time. There was no one to comfort him. There were only the stars in the sky. Suddenly, the sky filled with bright lights. One bright star fell to the ground. Slowly, the star took the shape of the old elephant. He looked at the boy and smiled. As he jumped back into the sky, a tusk fell to the ground.

As the Sun began to rise, the boy picked up the white tusk. It glowed in his hands like starlight. He carried the tusk to the city and sold it to a rich man. With the money from the sale of the tusk, he was able to buy a house. He also bought two young elephants but he never forgot the old elephant. And he was never lonely again.
