Section J: Comprehension (10 marks)
Read the passage carefully and answer the questions which follow.

Write your answers in complete sentences.

Once upon a time, a wolf was making a birthday cake for his grandmother. He was sneezing badly and had run out of sugar.

The wolf decided to walk down the street to ask his neighbour for a cup of sugar. His neighbour was a pig who built his house out of straw. He knocked on the door and called out, "Little pig, little pig, may I come in?"

There was no answer. The little pig refused to open his door. The wolf felt like sneezing. He huffed and puffed and blew the straw house down. In the middle of a pile of straw was the little pig. He was at home after all.

It seemed like a shame to leave a perfectly good ham dinner lying there in the straw. The wolf was rather hungry and ate the little pig up.

However, the wolf did not manage to get any sugar for the cake. He went home feeling disappointed and decided to make a beautiful birthday card for his grandmother instead.

Adapted from 'The True Story of the Three Little Pigs' by Jon Scieszka
