Joseph was a timid boy who was terrified of monsters. He would often have nightmares. He would wake up in cold sweat and run to his parents' room to sleep with them.

One rainy night, Joseph ate some biscuits in his room. After a while, he felt sleepy. He left the packet of biscuits beside his bed and fell asleep.

In the middle of the night, Joseph woke up to a strange sound coming from under his bed. Although he was frightened, he peeked under his bed. He was shocked to see a brown monster eating his biscuits!

Joseph yelled. Just as he was about to dash out of his room, he heard the monster crying. Joseph felt curious. He sat on the floor and asked the monster why it was crying.

"I've not eaten since this morning and I got lost while playing with my friends," the friendly monster said sadly. Joseph felt sorry for it.

Suddenly, the door to Joseph's room opened and the brown monster vanished immediately. Joseph turned around and saw his parents. They had heard Joseph's screams and wanted to check on him. They asked him if anything was wrong. Joseph shook his head and told them he was fine.
