Section E: Comprehension Multiple- Choice Questions (5 x 1 mark)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 34 to 38.

My family had a cat, Ah Mew, a few years ago. It was a gift to my family from Auntie Molly. However, when he did not return one day after his routine walk, Mum and Dad went to a nearby pet shop, hoping to buy another cat to replace Ah Mew. But somehow, they were unable to find one which they liked.

One afternoon, after I had finished school and was a door away from home, a kitten, no older than a month, scampered into my path. "It's Ah Mew!" I exclaimed happily. White as snow, with a long black tail and two brown patches on his forehead, it bore an uncanny resemblance to our family cat that went missing a month ago. I scooped up the kitten and whisked it home, excitedly proclaiming, "Look everyone! It's Ah Mew. He's come home!" But Kitty turned out to be much more than merely a substitute for Ah Mew. Affectionate, charming, sensitive and intelligent, he exuded a personality of his own and soon found a permanent place in our hearts. He settled in quickly, lapping up the comfort and attention, probably with the knowledge that life with us was a much better option than living on the streets.

Kitty endeared himself to everyone in my family, including my grandma, who usually had a tepid attitude towards cats. But it was with Mum that Kitty shared a special bond. He would follow her everywhere, nestle against her feet while she read the newspaper and perch and purr on her shoulders during dinner time, hoping for some scraps. When Mum played the piano, Kitty would sit still and listen with closed eyes - enjoying every note.

One day, while playing with the clothes in the laundry basket, Kitty accidentally damaged Mum's favourite silk dress with his sharp claws. As I was scolding Kitty, he ran towards Mum and hid behind her legs. Much to my fury, Mum just dismissed the act as an 'ignorant mistake', saying, "It's okay, Lynn. It's just a dress."

For each question from 34 to 38, four options are given. Choose the most suitable answer and shade the correct oval (1, 2, 3 or 4) on the Optical Answer Sheet.

- (2) Lynn found Kitty on her way home from school.
- (3) Auntie Molly gave Kitty to Lynn's family as a gift.
- (4) A friend requested Lynn to take care of Kitty for her.

35. When Ah Mew did not return, how long was Lynn's family without a cat?

- (1) 1 week
- (2) 2 weeks
- (3) 4 weeks
- (4) 8 weeks

36. According to the third paragraph, Grandma had a tepid attitude towards cats. This suggests that _____.

- (4) Kitty took a long time to settle down in Lynn's home.

Section I: Comprehension Open-ended Questions (5 x 2 marks)

"One more sweep away from the mountain and we're going down! Hang on!" Chad's dad shouted. Twelve-year-old Chad had never been so scared as the plane plunged towards the earth much faster than any roller coaster he had ever ridden. The small plane was vertical now, nose almost straight down. Chad could see Dr Howlett straining his arms to keep the cargo in the plane from crushing him.

Metal and plastic squeaked as the plane picked up speed. Chad turned to look at Kate. Her face was a mask of terror. It appeared that she wanted to say something, but no words came. Chad hung onto his younger sister as the plane made its last desperate swoop downwards. Suddenly, Chad heard the leaves and then branches batter the bottom of the plane before it hit the ground. He heard Kate moan as the plane came to a stop. Then there was complete silence.

Chad's mind was racing and he felt a chill in spite of the overwhelming heat and humidity. As he stared at his puffy ankles, he moved his toes in circles and clenched and unclenched his fists. Finally, the numbness left. He felt very tired and helpless. Something made him want to sleep, but he would not. As he fought the urge to drift from consciousness, his legs quivered and his whole body shuddered. Chad crawled through the wreckage and stumbled into the cockpit. "Dad?" No answer. His dad was twisted in the seat, his head sagging sideways. Chad fought back his tears as he leaned in and pressed his ears against his father's chest.
