Have you ever wondered what firefighters do to keep us safe? Firefighters are like real-life superheroes who work hard to protect us and our homes. Let us find out more about their key roles and responsibilities.	5
Firstly, firefighters rush to help when there is a fire or an emergency. They risk their lives to put out fires, rescue trapped people and animals and provide first aid to those in need.	5
Secondly, firefighters teach us how to stay safe from fires. They visit schools and communities to talk about fire safety and show us how to use fire extinguishers. They want us to know what to do if there is a fire. One student said, "Firefighters are brave and strong. They help us when we're scared." Firefighters also conduct building inspections to make sure that the buildings comply with fire safety regulations.	10
Thirdly, firefighters are always ready to help in other emergencies too. They help with accidents, like when someone gets hurt or trapped in a vehicle. They are also trained to handle incidents such as chemical spills or gas leaks. Besides that, they help during floods, storms, and other disasters.	15
So, the next time you see a firefighter, remember to say thank you! Their job is not just putting out fires. They are "angels" in our midst protecting and helping people. We need to celebrate these heroes who put their lives at risk doing their job.

Part 8: Comprehension 2 (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow.

Long ago, a powerful lion ruled the jungle with unmatched strength. His roar echoed through the land, striking fear in the hearts of all the animals. None dared to challenge him – except for one small creature, a mouse named Moli. Despite his size, Moli was known for his courage.

One scorching afternoon, while the lion was resting under a large tree, Moli scurried past, searching for food. Without noticing, he ran across the lion's nose. Startled, the lion awoke with a deafening roar and caught Moli with his mighty paw. "How dare you disturb my rest?" the lion snarled.

Moli, trembling yet putting up a brave front, squeaked, "Please, mighty lion, spare me! I mean no harm. Perhaps one day, I could repay your kindness." The lion chuckled, amused by the idea. But something in Moli's tiny, determined eyes softened the lion's heart. He decided to let Moli go. "Go, little one. You are free."

Days later, the lion was caught in a hunter's net. He roared and struggled fiercely but his efforts only tightened the net. Hearing the lion's desperate cries, Moli remembered the kindness the lion had shown him. Without hesitation, he rushed over and began gnawing at the net with his sharp teeth, freeing the lion.

"You saved my life, little mouse! I have underestimated you," the lion said, his heart filled with gratitude. From that day on, the lion became the best of friends with the mouse and learned that even the smallest creatures deserved respect. He ruled with fairness instead.
