Section F Comprehension Open-Ended (2 marks each)

Read the passage carefully and answer the questions.

Peter was very worried. He had answered many questions wrongly during his English test. He did not hope to get high marks but prayed that he could pass the test.

When his name was called, Peter walked forward to collect his test paper from Ms Tan, his English teacher. His heart was beating fast but his fear soon turned to joy. He had passed and scored 85 marks out of 100!

"Am I dreaming?" he asked himself as he happily walked back to his seat.

"Class, please check the marks and let me know if there are any mistakes," said Ms Tan.

Peter checked the marks and found out that Ms Tan had added the marks wrongly.

"If I keep quiet, nobody will know about it," Peter thought to himself.

36. How did Peter know that he would not get good marks for his test?

37. What did Peter hope to get for his test?

38. Why did Peter think that he was dreaming?

39. How did Peter manage to score such high marks?

40. What is the right thing for Peter to do?
