Dear Irene,

How are you? I am enjoying my holiday. I am staying at my uncle's house in China. I will be here for two weeks.

My uncle has a farm in China. Have you ever been to a farm before? My uncle has chickens, ducks, cows and pigs on his farm. There are even horses. My uncle taught me to ride a horse. It was not easy at first but after a few tries, I can now ride a horse around the farm. My uncle keeps the horses in a stable. There are seven of them altogether. This morning, I helped my uncle feed the animals. After feeding the chickens, my cousins and I helped to collect the eggs. We collected a small basket of eggs. I like staying on the farm because I like to look at the animals. I learnt a few things about the animals too. I will be visiting my uncle again in December. Would you like to come along?

When I come back to Singapore, I will show you all the photos which I have taken here. Well, I think I have to go now.

Your friend,

Sue

K. Read the passage carefully and answer the questions that follow. (5 x 2 marks)

One morning, when Mei Li was on her way to school, she met Sarah at the school gate. Sarah was walking very slowly and she looked tired. Mei Li decided to help Sarah.

“Hello, may I help you?” asked Mei Li. Sarah smiled and nodded her head. Mei Li carried Sarah’s bag. Then she held Sarah’s hand and they walked into the school together.

“I met with an accident a month ago. A car knocked me down while I was crossing the road. As a result both my legs are weak. I find it difficult to walk now,” Sarah said.

Mei Li felt sorry for Sarah. From that day onwards, Mei Li always waited for Sarah at the bus-stop in front of the school. Mei Li thought that it was her duty to help someone like Sarah. Although she had to come to school earlier, she did not mind. She was glad that she helped someone in need.

51. Where was Mei Li going when she met Sarah?
