Dear Countrymen,

I am very happy to announce that I will be throwing a birthday party for Princess Lesa. She will be turning nine on 3 November. All of you are invited to attend her party at the Royal Garden. It will start at three o'clock in the afternoon. The royal cooks will prepare a feast. There will be a magic show too. Please come and celebrate Princess Lesa's birthday together with the royal family!

Your King,
King William

For questions 48 to 51, fill in each blank with ONE word from the text.

48. The king is inviting his _____ to Princess Lesa's party.

49. The king is celebrating Princess Lesa's _____.

50. The party will start at three o'clock in the _____.

51. The food will be prepared by the royal _____.

SECTION J: COMPREHENSION (5 x 2m = 10m)

Read the passage below carefully.

It had been two hours since the four of them had started climbing. Jill and Sarah were hot and thirsty. They could not wait to reach the top of the hill. Once there, they could rest their aching knees.

"Come on, girls! We are reaching our destination soon!" Ben said cheerfully.

Finally, the four friends reached the top of the hill. They were so joyous that they shouted, "Hooray, we made it!" After they had calmed down, they took huge breaths of the fresh air and admired the view.

"Be careful, Jack!" Sarah warned as he moved nearer to the edge to take some photographs of the scenery. Jack smiled and said that he would be careful. After all, he did not want any accidents to happen too.

The girls found a shady tree and sat under it to rest. The boys joined them and they had a simple meal of sandwiches and cold water. After that, they took out their drawing materials and started to paint. A while later, dark clouds gathered in the sky.

The four friends decided to pack up and leave immediately.

Answer Questions 52 to 56 in complete sentences.

52. Where did the four friends want to go?

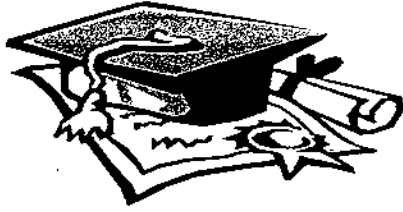

53. Which word in the passage has the same meaning as 'very happy'?

54. Why did Jack move closer to the edge of the hill?

55. Where did the four friends have their meal on the hill?

56. Which sentence in the passage suggests that it might rain?
