Section H: Comprehension

Multiple Choice and Open-ended Questions (10 marks)

Read the passage carefully and answer questions 46 to 50.

Mr. Fox and Mrs. Fox and their four small foxes lived in a hole under a tree. Every evening as soon as it got dark, Mr. Fox would say to Mrs. Fox, "Well, my darling, what shall it be this time? A plump chicken from Boggis? A duck or a goose from Bunce? Or a nice turkey from Bean?" When Mrs. Fox had told him what she wanted, Mr. Fox would creep down into the valley in the darkness of the night and help himself.

Boggis, Bunce and Bean knew very well what was going on, and it made them wild with rage. So every night, each of them would take a shotgun and hide in a dark place somewhere on their own farm, hoping to catch the robber. But Mr. Fox was too clever for them. He always approached a farm with the wind blowing in his face, and this meant that if any man was lurking in the shadows ahead, the wind would carry the smell of that man to Mr. Fox's nose from far away.

Adapted from 'Fantastic Mr Fox' by Roald Dahl
