Deming laughed and said, "Fast? Let us have a race and we'll see which one of us is the hare and which is the tortoise." 5

Youli knew he could outrun Deming but he did not want to brag. Meanwhile, Deming told everyone that Youli was a coward. At the field one day, Deming approached Youli and challenged him to a race. 10

"You took such a long time to answer the phone! What were you doing?" asked an impatient voice. "I wanted to invite you to go kite-flying in the park with me!" the caller continued.

"I was in the kitchen, helping my mother to cook lunch." Jonathan replied. "Let's go kite-flying!"

5

Ten minutes later, Jonathan met Gopal at the park. Soon, both boys were flying their colourful kites high in the sky. Suddenly, Jonathan tripped over a small rock on the ground. He lost his grip on his kite.

At that moment, a strong gust of wind carried his kite towards a huge tree nearby. His kite disappeared among the thick leaves in the tree. Gopal helped Jonathan to his feet. Soon, they found Jonathan's yellow kite stuck on one of the branches of the tree.

"Good thing I did not get a green one! I won't be able to see it among the green leaves," Jonathan joked as he climbed the tree to retrieve his kite. Just as he was about to pull the kite down, he lost his balance. He fell to the ground and lost consciousness.
